

Florida Association of College & Research Libraries

Scan to join

The Florida Association of College and Research Libraries (FACRL) is the Florida state chapter of the American Library Association's (ALA) division of the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL).

Why join FACRL?

FACRL strives to provide opportunities for professional development and networking while promoting the exchange of ideas and information. Participation in committees and interest groups to meet colleagues across the state.

FACRL is open to librarians, library staff, and MLIS students from all types of academic libraries in Florida, including public and private colleges and universities, as well as specialized research libraries.

Membership

- + All members of the ACRL division of ALA who live in Florida are automatically members of FACRL.
- + Not an ACRL member? Join us as a non-ALA/ACRL member for only $30 annually. (One year from date of registration)

Professional Development

Attend and present at FACRL programs, including the annual fall conference

Leadership

Serve on the FACRL Board (elections in early spring)

Service

Serve on FACRL Committees (call for new members every spring)

Connect

Collaboration and connect with librarians across the state

Learn More

<https://facrl.org/>

communication@facrl.org